

DISCOVER THE ELYSIUM...

Elysium, a heavenly experience on earth - a place of delight and eternal bliss, where unique experiences impress you again and again...

Adjacent to one of the most renowned archaeological sites, the Tombs of the Kings, the hotel indicates that in ancient times this was considered a headland of significance, valued for its spectacular views of the sun setting into the sea.

Designed along palatial lines, the Elysium invites you to enjoy unforgettable moments in an environment of ultimate serenity with uninterrupted views of the sea.

Surrounded by extensive landscaped gardens with water features, pools, an amphitheatre and its own sandy cove, it extends a feeling of wellbeing and indulgence. Every detail is an example of artistic and insightful craftsmanship, incorporating stone, marble and timber features that enhance furnishings reminiscent of local history and heritage. The moment the Elysium comes into view, you will note its sturdy drawbridge through a medieval arch, leading you to the inspiring colonnaded reception area. Images of the past come to mind, from the days of Byzantine prosperity to Greek, Roman, Medieval and Venetian glory.

A tour of the hotel is a journey of exploration. Take in the warmth of muted earth colours and allow yourself to wander, as you detect intricate mosaics and impressive arches and columns.

The Gardens

Visit the hotel's grounds, and you will soon be drawn to the landscaped gardens with direct access to the Tombs of the Kings. The scents of jasmine, citrus, olive trees and an array of shrubs and flowers fill the air, settling in the outdoor amphitheatre, where stepped seats provide views to the sunset, while a lavender-lined path beyond leads you to the sea.

A charming rotunda with hydro-pool highlights the sparkling multi-level swimming pool. Venture down to the beach, and you will discover the shoreline pedestrian path that winds its way right down to the Paphos harbour.
